The Lord's Table

As you eat this bread, as you drink this cup,

Let your heart give thanks, and be lifted up,

Your soul can rest in the truth secure,

As you eat this bread, all I am is yours.

All I am is yours, all I am I give,

Dying on the cross, rising from the grave,

Your sins to beat and your life restore,

As you eat this bread, all I am is yours,

In delight and joy, in the depth of pain,

In the anxious hours, through all loss and gain,

Your world may shake, but my word endures,

As you eat this bread, all I am is yours.
